

Lemont Township would like to extend our congratulations to Emily J. B. Christian who recently celebrated her 100th “Centennial” Birthday at the Lemont Community Center.

Emily was born on 11/23/21 in Chicago and has been a resident of Lemont since the 1950’s. A college graduate, Emily was employed as a scientist at Argonne National Laboratory for the majority of her career. Emily has a passion for art and loves creating fine jewelry. Many of her creations are on display at the Lemont Center for the Arts, located at 1243 State St. in Lemont.

Lemont Township congratulates Emily on reaching this impressive achievement and wishes her continued blessings and good health!!!
